Dear Members & Friends:

On September 12, 2008, leadership of the five Unions representing employees working at Lockheed Martin Aeronautics Company met to discuss matters of mutual importance that affect the membership of all five bargaining units in preparation for the imminent negotiations of each Union with LM Aero.

Although all the collective bargaining agreements expire at different times, the leadership of the five Unions have discussed strategy to achieve the maximum benefits for all members represented by the five Unions throughout this negotiations season.

We believe that through regular communication we can share valuable information and assistance throughout the negotiations of each of the respective collective bargaining agreements.

It is our intent to meet at regular intervals throughout the negotiations of all the bargaining units at LM Aero.

In Solidarity,

Jim Bricker
